

McCULLEY
Vision Therapy

PATIENT INFORMATION:

Child's Name: _____ DOB: _____ / _____ / _____

SYMPTOMS CHECKLIST:

(please check any statements below that apply to your child)

General Motor Dysfunction:

- Delays in gross motor skills: skipping, hopping, bicycle without training wheels, etc.
- Delays in fine motor skills: improper pencil grip, lack of finger dexterity, difficulty with scissors
- Inconsistency in dominant hand
- Difficulty in time & space: bumps into things, doesn't understand time
- Confuses right and left directions
- Slow to finish schoolwork
- Short attention span
- Suffers from carsickness or motion sickness

Visual Motor Dysfunction:

- Poor drawing, writing
- Reversals: letters (b-d, p-q), words (was-saw), numbers (6-9).
- Difficulty with puzzles
- Difficulty with math concepts
- Difficulty copying from classroom board to paper
- Complains of blur in the distance after looking up from near work
- Skipping or re-reading words or lines
- Loses place while reading
- Letters or lines of text "run together" while reading
- Difficulty recognizing same word on different page
- Poorly spaced or crooked writing
- Difficulty tracking moving objects, such as a ball, etc.

Auditory Motor Dysfunction:

- Difficulty sounding back words & sounds

- Difficulty following directions
- Distracted by background sounds
- Delayed speech
- Speech irregularities
- Difficulty expressing self

Integrative Dysfunction:

- Difficulty with multiple tasks
- A “hands-on” learner
- Difficulty with rhythmic movement
- Difficulty with abstract thinking
- Difficulty judging distances

Visual Dysfunction:

- Slow reader
- Avoids reading & other deskwork
- Poor posture when reading: leans on arm, turns or tilts head, holds material closely
- Poor reading comprehension
- Comprehension decreasing the longer you read
- Confuses visually similar words
- Uncomfortable when reading: tires, rubs eyes, complains of eyes burning, gets headaches
- Squints, closes or covers one eye while reading
- Print appears to move or jump while reading
- Needs to use finger or marker to keep place while reading
- Feels sleepy while reading
- Prefers being read to instead of reading on own

- Experience symptoms of possible eye strain including:
 - Dry eyes
 - Watery eyes
 - Red eyes
 - Burning in eyes
 - Sensitivity to light
 - Eyelid twitches
 - Frequent blinking
 - Frowning
- Sees more clearly with one eye than the other while wearing best glasses prescription R or L
- Experiences an eye that turns in or out